

Dr Alistair Bromhead

BA(Hons) PGDipl MSc MIEMA CEnv CMIOSH

Professional qualifications

- Chartered Member of the Institute of Occupational Safety and Health (CMIOSH)
- NEBOSH (National Examination Board of Occupational Safety and Health) Diploma in Health and Safety - Parts I&II
- Institute of Acoustics certified competent person for workplace noise assessments
- Certified competent person for manual handling training
- PhD on Environmental Law
- MSc Environmental Management
- Full member of Institute of Environmental Management and Assessment (MIEMA)
- Chartered Environmentalist of the Society for the Environment (CEnv)
- Registered Principal Auditor under EARA scheme

Experience

- Manual handling train the trainer courses for a wide range of clients in various sectors. Development of the City & Guilds Manual Handling Train the Trainer qualification
- Manual handling risk assessments and handler training for a wide range of clients
- Conduct of EHS audits on 25 companies in Bulgaria & Romania as part of a European Commission funded project to evaluate compliance with European Directives and to provide advice on improvement
- Envirowise – since 1999, Alistair has been an Envirowise helpline advisor providing answers to legal and technical environmental queries, conducting “fast-track” resource efficiency audits and "design-track" audits to promote green design
- WRAP - the Waste and Resources Action Programme: advisor to the wood waste portfolio responsible for the development of training material and a Code of Practice for the wood recycling industry
- Proposal assessor for the Eurostars funding programme regarding sustainability projects
- UEAPME – (European Association for small business which represents around 7 million enterprises) – provision of consultancy advice on draft Eco-label criteria for furniture
- Noise surveys, risk assessments and on-site consultancy for a wide range of clients

Retained by BFM Ltd - the British Furniture Manufacturers trade body. Responsible for the provision of consultancy services to BFM Limited and 350 member companies including:

- Operation of an environmental, health and safety advice line to provide technical and legal guidance.
- Conducting EHS reviews for UK member companies: evaluating legal compliance, environmental performance & risk and the potential for cost savings and improved practices. Over 200 site reviews conducted.
- Identifying and interpreting forthcoming legislation, with the dissemination of practical advice. Writing guidance notes & monthly newsletter for member companies.
- Operation of Association of British Insurers approved health and safety certification scheme
- Representing sectoral interests with regard to proposed and revised legislation
- Developing and managing various research projects and writing the resulting guidance:
  - Promotion of timber waste recycling in the furniture manufacturing sector - for the Waste and Resources Action Programme
  - Benchmarking solvent use in the UK furniture manufacturing sector
  - Benchmarking wood combustion
  - Implications of sustainable development for reproduction furniture manufacturers

Alistair Bromhead Ltd.

www.abromhead.co.uk